

1. Reading Comprehension:

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

Passage: “Success is not final, failure is not fatal: It is the courage to continue that counts.” These words by Winston Churchill remind us that life is full of ups and downs. What matters is not the temporary success or failure, but the will to persevere. Each setback should be viewed as a lesson to grow, and every victory should be a reminder of our capabilities.

Questions:

1. What does Winston Churchill’s quote mean?
  2. According to the passage, what should we focus on instead of success or failure?
  3. How should one view setbacks and victories in life?
  4. Find a word in the passage that means “temporary.”
