

Dear Students, Parents, and Mentors,

I am delighted to extend my heartfelt congratulations to all of you for your outstanding performance. The dedication, hard work, and perseverance that you have shown is truly commendable. Your achievements reflect the commitment of AECS, Mysuru to academic excellence and holistic development. As we celebrate these successes, let's continue to uphold the core values that guide us.

In line with the National Education policy (NEP) 2020 and, the National Curriculum Framework (NCF), we must prepare ourselves for future challenges. The emphasis on multidisciplinary education, critical thinking, and creativity will equip our students to excel in a rapidly changing world. Let's embrace these reforms with enthusiasm, ensuring that our educational practices align with these forward-thinking policies.

It's equally important to foster a sense of responsibility towards our environment. By adopting sustainable practices and cultivating good habit, we can contribute positively to our surroundings. Encouraging healthy digital habits within our families will also ensure that technology, enhances our lives without overwhelming it. Balance is key, and guiding our children to use digital resources wisely is essential for their overall well-being.

Finally, let us never forget the rich cultural heritage of our motherland, India. our traditions and values are what make us unique. By instilling these principles in our students, we not only preserve our heritage but also prepare them to be responsible and well-rounded citizens. Encouraging healthy routines and lifestyles will further support their growth and development, enabling them to face future challenges with confidence and grace.

Chairman AEES

"The journey of thousand miles begins with a single step".

It gives me immense pleasure to know that Atomic Energy Central School, Mysuru is publishing its Annual Newsletter 'ANUDHWANI' for the session 2024-25. ANUDHWANI records all the important events that the school has witnessed and speaks volumes about the academic achievements of the school.

Our school follows holistic approach for the overall development of personality of a student and also inculcates in them values likes honesty, integrity, courtesy, humility and respect for others. This is the need of the hour in today's highly globalized and technology driven world.

I am confident that the newsletter will further motivate all students to do better next year. I convey my best wishes to the school administration, teachers and students of AECS, Mysuru for achieving excellence in all scholastic and non-scholastic fields.

(S.K. Lahiri)

Secretary AEES

Chairman's message:

It is a matter of great pleasure and pride that Atomic Energy Central School, Mysuru is publishing its annual newsletter "Anudhwani" for the academic session 2024-25.

A Newsletter is a kind of evidence and testimony of the activities that the school undertook during the year for the holistic development of a child.

This academic session the School has participated in many Inter School events, Zonal level and All India level inter AECS competitions and has won prizes.

I am sure this issue of newsletter will inspire and motivate students for further academic excellence in the year to come.

the publication of this newsletter is made possible due to the continuous efforts by the Vice Principal and her dedicated team.

I would like to compliment the staff and students for their active participation and dedication in all activities of the school.

I also wish them a happy, healthy and prosperous year ahead.
