Part- IV Literature

VI. Read the extract given below and answer the following questions.

As we continued our visit around the National War Memorial, we came across another important installation called Amar Jawan Jyoti that commemorates our soldiers. The name, as you may have guessed, represents an immortal flame that is kept ablaze all through the day and night to revere the sacrifices of our soldiers. Earlier the Amar Jawan Jyoti, which also displayed a rifle and a helmet, was alighted under the arch of India Gate in January 1972 to commemorate India’s victory in the India-Pakistan War of 1971.

The National War Memorial now includes Amar Jawan Jyoti in the obelisk, which is surrounded by four Chakras. During the inauguration, the Prime Minister lit a new flame to commemorate the fallen heroes. Later, the old flame at India Gate was also merged with the new flame at the National War Memorial.

Q.1 What is the purpose of the Amar Jawan Jyoti at the National War Memorial?

Answer: It commemorates and honours the sacrifices of Indian soldiers.

Q.2 Where was the original Amar Jawan Jyoti installed before being merged with the new one?

Answer: It was installed under the arch of India Gate.

Q.3 What objects were displayed along with the earlier Amar Jawan Jyoti under the India Gate arch?

Answer: A rifle and a helmet.

Q.4 Who lit the new flame of the Amar Jawan Jyoti during the inauguration at the National War Memorial?

Answer: The Prime Minister.

Answer the following questions from the lesson: (3X2= 6)

Q.1 What is the significance of the National War Memorial?

Answer:

The National War Memorial is significant because it honours the brave soldiers who sacrificed their lives to protect India. It reminds us of the cost of freedom and ensures that the sacrifices of soldiers are never forgotten. Each tablet at the memorial bears the names of fallen heroes, making it a symbol of national pride, gratitude, and respect.

Q.2 Why is it our duty to pay homage to our brave soldiers?

Answer:

It is our duty to pay homage to brave soldiers because they protect the nation selflessly, even at the risk of losing their lives. We live in peace and security because of their courage and sacrifices. Showing respect to them is a way of expressing gratitude and acknowledging their service to the country.

Q.3 Explain how the National War Memorial and Museum app will be helpful in spreading awareness about war heroes.

Answer:

The National War Memorial and Museum app is helpful in spreading awareness as it provides information in 21 languages, making it accessible to people across India. It contains details about soldiers, murals, and stories of bravery in an interactive format. This helps students and citizens learn about war heroes easily and feel inspired by their courage.
