Section A - Reading (20 marks)

A1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below.

The great advantage of early rising is the good start it gives us in our day's work. In the early morning the mind is fresh as there are few sounds or other distractions, so that work done at that time is generally well-done. The early riser also finds time to take some exercise in the fresh morning air, and this exercise supplies him with a fund of energy that will last until the evening. By beginning so early, he knows that he has plenty of time to do thoroughly all the work he can be expected to do, and is not tempted to hurry over any part of it. All his work being finished in good time, he has a long interval of rest in the evening before he goes to bed.

Now answer the following questions.
