

परमाणु ऊर्जा शिक्षण संस्था
Atomic Energy Education Society
कार्यपत्रक / Answer Key (2025-26)

कक्षा /Class: VIII विषय /Subject: English माह/ Month: August अंक/Marks: 40

दिया गया पाठ्यक्रम/Portion covered: Unit-1 Wisdom Paves the Way

विद्यार्थी का नाम/Name of the student: _____

अनुक्रमांक /Roll No. _____ कक्षा/अनुभाग Class /Sec.: _____ दिनांक /Date: _____

Answer Key

SECTION A- (READING-10 Marks)

A.1

2X2=4m

Ans.1 The old woman moved to an old age home because her husband had recently passed away and she did not have any children to take care of her.

Ans.2 She reacted with joy and enthusiasm, saying that she already loved it, even without seeing the room.

Ans.3 She resolved to focus on the new day to be thankful for what she had and to choose happiness every morning.

Ans.4 The story tells that the old woman was optimistic, cheerful and full of boundless enthusiasm. She believed in choosing happiness and gratitude despite her difficulties.

A.2

1X2=2m

1. Recount

2. Boundless

SECTION B- (WRITING-10 Marks)

2. Notice Writing

Format :1

Content: 2

Fluency and Accuracy: 1

3. Formal Letter Writing

Format :1

Content:3

Fluency and Accuracy: 2

SECTION C- (Grammar-7 Marks)

4.(i) was -were (ii) seen- saw (iii)look-looked (iv)tell-told

5.(i) observe -observation (ii) You should think before you speak. (iii) May

6. (i) It is important to note down points as you listen.

(ii) This was the most important match of his career.

(iii) The old man was an honest individual.

Section D-Literature (13 Marks)

7.

(i) False Statement: a: The young men did not ignore the tracks; they carefully studied them to gather information.

(ii) Ram Datt's statement shows that he is observant and reflective.

(iii) Information hidden beneath the surface

(iv) They are independently analysing the situation and thinking deeply.

(v) The four men were talking about their findings about the camel.

8. (i). The four young men were seeking employment. They had left their village ten days ago in search of better opportunities. They believed that the King of Ujjain might recognize their talents. Their goal was to reach the city and present themselves. Despite the challenges, they remained hopeful.

(ii) Shiv Datt saw that the leaves on the left side of the road were eaten. The right side remained untouched. This led him to believe the camel could not see from its right eye. His reasoning showed attention to detail. It also highlighted his logical thinking.

(iii) The merchant was surprised by how accurately they described his camel. Yet, they claimed they hadn't seen it. This made him suspicious. He thought they had stolen and sold it. He decided to complain about it to the King.

(iv) The play teaches us that wisdom is more important than knowledge. It is about careful observation, patience, and good judgment. The young men used reason, not assumptions. Wisdom helped them earn respect. It is a valuable trait in life.

9.(i) Wisdom considered more powerful than physical strength because wisdom helps us think, plan and act in the right way. While strength alone cannot always solve problems. A wise person knows how to use knowledge and intelligence to turn even a dangerous situation into a safe one. Physical strength has limits.

OR

Answer: If I were in the place of the wise character, I would first stay calm and avoid getting frightened. I would carefully observe the situation and use my intelligence to think of possible ways to escape danger. Instead of relying only on physical strength, I would try to find a smart and practical solution. I would also remember the importance of courage because without courage, wisdom cannot be applied.

XXXX